

Flea Control

The flea cycle lasts about 3 weeks, during which the female flea can lay 1000s eggs. Immature stages of the flea life cycle can lay dormant in the environment for up to 12 months before hatching. The best way to approach flea control is routine prevention.

Ask our trained staff about the best solution for your pet.